

FRACAS BROTHERS Performer's Bios:

Bryan Coffee (Dr. Fracas) – is a graduate of The Second City LA. He has appeared on I-Carly, Monk, and Blue Collar TV. On stage, Bryan has performed his one-man show The Weekly Armenian at The Comedy Central Stage LA and has been a member of multiple award-winning sketch comedy groups. As if that isn't enough to blow your face off, Bryan also directs the award winning, nationally loved physical comedy duo, Ten West.

Jon Monastero (Frank)- has performed recently at the Disney Concert Hall in The Spirit of the Cello (as The Spirit of the Cello) and The Composer is Dead (Pall Bearer), and at the Mark Taper Forum in The School of Night (Harlequin). Other theatrical credits include Summersounds at the Hollywood Bowl (Jack Donkey), The Illusion at Open Fist Theatre (Matamore), Fafalo at the Miles Playhouse (Fafalo) to name a few. He speaks fluent Italian, can talk your ear off about the Civil War and is wicked good at pratfalls and balloon animals!

Stephen Simon (Beans) - recent theatrical productions include Hamlet Shut Up (World Premiere) and A Mulholland Christmas Carol at Sacred Fools Theater Company, and The Composer is Dead at the Walt Disney Concert Hall. Television work includes the half-hour comedy, We're Not Together (series regular) and All That; feature films include Eagle Eye and Wasting Away. He is a graduate of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Clown College (with honors), gardens fiercely and has chickens, and regularly finishes the NY Times Sunday crossword puzzle.
